In the event any portion of any multi-unit apartment building is partially or totally destroyed, and then rebuilt or reconstructed, the owners of apartment spaces agree that valid easements shall exist for any resulting encroachments.

ROLL 321 PAGE 1624

(e) The owner of an apartment unit, upon acquisition of same, shall automatically become a member of the Council of Co-Owners of this condominium project, and shall remain a member thereof until such time as his ownership ceases for any reason, at which time his membership shall automatically cease. The Council of Co-Owners shall elect from among its members a Board of Administration to consist of not less than three (3) members, who shall serve in such office without pay or compensation for such term as specified in the By-Laws of this condominium project or until their successors are duly elected in accordance with the provisions of such By-Laws. Such Board of Administration shall manage and govern the affairs of the Council of Co-Owners, and it shall have such powers, functions, authority, duties, obligations and responsibilities as shall be specified in said By-Laws and/or as may be delegated to it from time to time by the Council of Co-Owners.

(g) That each owner, tenant or occupant of any apartment unit shall comply with the provisions of the Declaration, the By-Laws, and the valid decisions and resolutions of the Council of Co-Owners, as lawfully amended from time to time, and failure to comply with any such provisions, decisions or resolutions shall be grounds for an action to recover sums due, for damages, and/or for injunctive relief.

(h) This Declaration shall not be revoked or any of the provisions hereof amended unless all of the owners of the apartment space in this condominium project and all of the mortgagees or beneficiaries of mortgagees or deeds of trust covering the apartment units unanimously agree to such revocation or amendment by duly recorded instruments.

(i) All owners of apartment units in this condominium project are bound and obligated to contribute monthly or as otherwise periodically assessed by the Council of Co-Owners, or by the Board of Administration when authorized to do so by the By-Laws of this project or by resolution of said Council of Co-Owners, their pro-rata share, in the percentages above fixed and set out for each apartment unit, of the expenses of administration, upkeep, maintenance and repair of the general common elements of this project, and in the proper care of the limited common elements, as any and all such common elements are described and defined in this Declaration, and of any other valid expense or charge assessed pursuant to authority given by said Act, or this Declaration or said By-Laws, each of which assessments shall become due and payable within ten (10) days from the date each such assessment is made unless otherwise specified in the By-Laws, and such assessments shall become liens against the respective apartment units for their pro-rata share thereof at the time such assessments become due and payable unless otherwise specified in said By-Laws. No owner shall be exempt from contributing toward such expense, charges, costs, or assessments by waiver of the use or enjoyment of the common elements, either general or limited, or by abandonment of the apartment belonging to him.

(ll) All liens for assessments made by the Council of Co-Owners, or by the Board of Administration when authorized to do so as aforesaid, shall be prior to other liens, except that such liens for said assessments shall be subordinate, secondary and inferior to (1) all liens for taxes or special assessments levied by the city, county, and state governments or any political subdivision or special district thereof, and (2) liens securing amounts due or to become due under any mortgage, vendor's lien or deed of trust filed for record prior to the date payment of such assessment for common expenses become due. Such lien for assessments herein provided for may be foreclosed, without prejudice and subject to the aforesaid prior liens, by suit by the Board of Administration or any authorized officer thereof, acting in behalf of the Council of Co-Owners, in like manner as mortgages on real property. No such foreclosure shall affect or impair any such prior liens. The Board of Administration or any authorized officer thereof, acting in behalf of the Council of Co-Owners of the apartment units in this project, shall have power to bid in the apartment unit foreclosed on at the foreclosure sale, and to acquire, hold, lease, mortgage and convey the same in behalf of such Co-Owners. The purchaser acquiring title to such apartment unit at such foreclosure sale, whoever he may be, and his successors and assigns, shall not be liable for the share of the unpaid common expenses or assessments by the Council of Co-Owners chargeable to such apartment unit which became due prior to acquisition of such title at such foreclosure sale, but such unpaid share of common expenses or assessments shall be deemed to be common expenses collectable from all of the owners of the apartment units in this project, including such purchaser or acquirer, his successors and assigns, on a pro-rata basis.

(12) Each apartment space shall be used and occupied only as a single-family dwelling and residential housing accommodation, or for rental purposes, and no apartment space shall be altered, remodeled, subdivided or converted into more than one dwelling unit or housing accommodation.

(13) Upon the sale or conveyance of an apartment unit, all unpaid assessments against the selling Co-Owner for his pro-rata share of the common expenses and charges shall be first paid out of the sale price or by the purchaser in preference over any other assessments or charges of whatever nature except the following:

- (a) Assessments, liens and charges in favor of state and any political subdivision thereof for taxes due and unpaid on the apartment unit; and
- (b) Amounts due under mortgage instruments duly recorded.

(14) Any purchaser of an apartment unit upon request prior to his purchase shall be entitled to a statement from the Board of Administration as to the amount of the unpaid assessments and charges against the particular apartment unit to be sold and purchased, and such purchaser shall not be liable, nor shall the apartment unit sold be subject to any lien for any unpaid charge or assessment made by the Council of Co-Owners against the Seller or his apartment unit in excess of the amount set forth in said statement for the period covered by such statement. Further provided, that any existing mortgagee of an apartment unit under a mortgage instrument duly recorded shall be entitled upon written request at least annually to a statement from the Board of Administration regarding any unpaid assessments due from the owner of such apartment unit, but the failure of such statement to recite any unpaid assessment shall not relieve the owner from liability therefor nor affect any lien therefor.

(15) The Council of Co-Owners may, upon resolution of a majority, or if required or provided for in the Declaration or the By-Laws, obtain and continue in effect blanket property insurance to insure the buildings and the owners thereof against risks of whatever character, without prejudice to the right of each Co-Owner to insure his own apartment on his own account and for his own benefit. Such insurance may be written in the name of the Council of Co-Owners or any person designated in the By-Laws or this Declaration as a trustee for each apartment owner and each apartment owner's mortgagee, if any. Each Co-Owner and his mortgagee, if any, shall be a beneficiary, even though not expressly named, in the percentages or fractions established in Paragraph 7 of this Declaration. The insurance cost and premiums for any blanket insurance coverage shall be a common expense to be paid by monthly or other periodic assessments as determined by the Board of Administration or the Council of Co-Owners, and all such payments collected on insurance shall be used solely for the payment of such insurance cost or premiums as the same become due. Each Co-Owner shall pay his pro-rata share of the cost of such insurance in proportion to his beneficial interest therein.

(16) In case of fire or other disaster or damage to or destruction of any property subject to this Declaration, the insurance proceeds shall be applied or disbursed, and the repair, reconstruction or disposition of such property and the obligations of the Co-Owners shall be as provided for by Sections 20 and 21, and any other pertinent or applicable provisions of the Texas Condominium Act.

(17) If the owner of any apartment unit in this condominium project shall desire to sell his apartment unit and receives an offer for the purchase of same which he would be willing to accept, such owner shall not sell such apartment unit without first giving the Board of Administration of this condominium project the right of first refusal to purchase such apartment unit, in behalf of the Council of Co-Owners of this project, for the same terms and conditions as stipulated in such offer received. Such right of first refusal shall be given by written notice to the Board of Administration which shall be transmitted by U. S. REGISTERED MAIL or CERTIFIED MAIL, with return receipt requested, and shall set out the price, terms and conditions stipulated in said offer received and the name and address of the person making such offer; and such notice shall be deemed given as of the date of such registered or certified mailing as evidenced by the post office receipt therefor. If such Board of Administration shall not elect to purchase said apartment unit for such price and on such terms and conditions specified in said notice within thirty (30) days from date such notice is given, then such owner may sell said apartment unit to the person or persons making such offer, and in such case it shall be the duty and obligation of said Board of Administration to certify in writing, to be duly acknowledged and in recordable form that said selling owner has complied with all the provisions hereof and that such Board of Administration has declined to purchase such apartment unit.
